1. Arrangements for Summer 2025

The timetable for the summer 2025 exam series has been published and can be found here.

You should have received a circular regarding the set text for Ted Hughes' poetry in the AS English Literature Unit 2 paper. Poems selected by Simon Armitage (ISBN: 9780571222957) is about to go out of print. The publisher, Faber, has recently printed a limited run of 1200 copies which we believe will be sufficient for the 2025 and 2026 exam series. We are currently in discussion with Faber regarding a replacement for the summer 2027 exam series.

In the previous version, the final five lines of 'Crow's Last Stand' on p.43 was missing. In the most recent reprint of the set text, this additional stanza has been included and can be seen below. If candidates do write on this poem, assessment will take into account both versions of the set text.

Burning
 burning
 burning
 there was finally something
 The sun could not burn, that it had rendered
 Everything down to - a final obstacle
 Against which it raged and charred
 And rages and chars
 Limpid among the glaring furnace clinkers
 The pulsing blue tongues and the red and the yellow
 The green lickings of the conflagration
 Limpid and black -
 Crow's eye-pupil, in the tower of its scorched fort.

2. NEA

Please be aware that from this summer, the NEA units for the three A level English subjects must be submitted digitally via Portal by WJEC, and we will no longer be accepting postal submissions in these qualifications. The final date for the submission of NEA marks and for sending the folders to the moderator for all three GCE English subjects is 15 May. Along with your sample please send the cover sheets and NEA checklists available on the subject pages.

Instructions

1. Navigate to the screen where you input candidate outcomes for each component entry (Portal > All services > Examinations and Assessment > Internal Assessment/Marks Outcomes)
2. On the input screen, where candidate marks have been entered and samples generated, navigate to the far-right column titled 'upload' and the cloud icon appears
3. Click the button and upload sample for each sample candidate. IAMIS will accept all standard file formats.

There is further information on how to upload to IAMIS on the e-submission page of our website, e-Submission \(wjec.co.uk\). A video which takes you through the process can be found here and more information can be found in our 2025 e-submission subject guide.

It is also worth reminding you that you that centres must now use the strengthened NEA cover sheet which takes into account the development of AI (Artificial Intelligence). The cover sheet must be completed for all candidates, whether their work is requested as part of the sample or not.

A number of you have been in touch to voice your concerns regarding candidates' possible use of AI (Artificial Intelligence) in their NEA.

You can find detailed guidance in the document JCQ AI Use in Assessments: Protecting the Integrity of Qualifications. Below is a summary of this guidance and suggestions to centres about preventing the misuse of AI in WJEC GCE English Language / English Language and Literature / English Literature NEA.

What is AI misuse in NEA?

AI misuse is candidates' use of AI tools, such as ChatGPT, to obtain and create content used in work produced for non-examined assessments which lead towards their qualification.

Any use of AI to create content for assessment is not permitted. Candidates must submit work for assessment which is their own, original work and which applies the knowledge, skills and understanding developed through their English qualifications. Any use of AI which means candidates have not independently produced their own, original work is malpractice.

Any work that is created by AI will not form part of the candidate's assessment and must be declared. Where it has been used to gather information, such as a summary of an article or an essay, candidates must provide a full acknowledgement of the content that was generated with the full name of the AI source and date the content was generated, e.g., ChatGPT 3.5 (<https://openai.com/blog/chatgpt/>), 02/04/2025. Centres and candidates should be aware that poor referencing constitutes malpractice.

Whose responsibility is it to mitigate against AI use in NEA?

It is the centre's responsibility to ensure malpractice policies and procedures are updated and implemented. Assessors must not accept work which is not the candidate's own. Ultimately, the Head of Centre has responsibility for ensuring candidates do not submit inauthentic work.

JCQ guidance states that centres should do the following:

- Explain the importance of candidates submitting their own independent work.
- Ensure the centre's malpractice policy includes misuse of AI.
- Reinforce to candidates the significance of their electronic declaration where they confirm their work is their own.
- Teachers are also required to authenticate candidate's work before it can be submitted for assessment.

Suggestions to prevent misuse of AI in NEA

Centres are advised to refer to qualifications' specifications' information about assessment evidence and authentication for information about what is required to appropriately authenticate work.

JCQ and WJEC recommend centres and teachers do the following to help prevent the misuse of AI in assessment:

- Consider restricting access to online AI tools on centre devices and networks.
- Allocate time for sufficient portions of written work (e.g., essays, creative writing, investigations) to be done in class under direct supervision.
- Allocate time for sufficient portions of preparatory work to be done in class under direct supervision.
- Examine intermediate / planning stages of production work and keep evidence of planning / draft work.
- Investigate instances where candidates produce work which is different to their usual style or quality.
- Do not accept work for assessment which it is suspected has been created by AI tools.

Internal standardisation support

We have placed exemplification on the Portal to support teachers standardising the marking of the NEA tasks. Our purpose with these materials is to exemplify marking standards rather than suggest 'model approaches'.

The range of videos and commentaries explore the marking of the NEA tasks in detail in order to assist with the discussions of standards in centres.

To access these videos, please log in to the Portal. Select 'Subject-Specific Support Material' under 'Resources' and use the 'Options' filters to access the resources. If you don't have access, please contact your exams officer.

Teaching resources and administrative guidance for the NEA components can also be found on the relevant subject pages.

3. Resources

Remember that the papers and mark schemes for the summer 2024 series are available to view on Portal. If you don't have access, please contact your exams officer.

For each of our GCE English qualifications, there are examples of responses to the summer 2024 papers on the subject-specific website.

We also have a catalogue of the available exemplar material from previous exam series which you can also access via the subject-specific website and by clicking on the 'Key Documents' tab. The catalogue can be found in the 'Exemplars' folder.

For each of our GCE English qualifications, our support teams have created Resource Guides for each of our subject areas:

WJEC GCE English Language Resources Guide

This booklet provides an overview of the support, guidance and resources available to those teaching the WJEC GCE English Language qualifications across our suite of websites.

On the GCE English Language page, you will find a series of student booklets for teachers to use as part of any blended or flipped learning approaches.

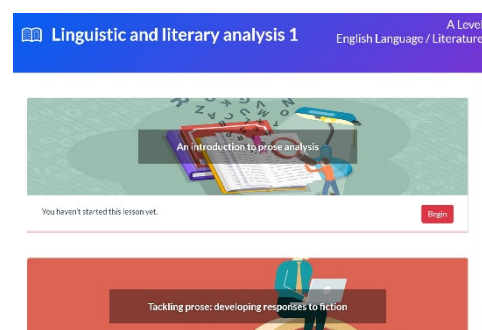

These editable materials collate many of the activities we have produced over the years in thematic booklets. These aim to support students develop their understanding of six different aspects of language study either working independently or as part of a curated programme put together by teachers to try to cover some learning remotely.

These can be found by following Resources>Key Documents>Resources for Teachers.

- Understanding Spoken Language
- Understanding The Language Levels
- Understanding The Nature Of Writing
- Understanding 21st Century English
- Understanding Concepts And Issues
- Understanding Language Change

GCE English Language and Literature:

All the materials from previous Professional Learning events can be found on the AS/A level English Language and Literature site. Click on 'Training' from the menu and then on 'Materials from previous events' to access these. There is also a handy link on the subject-specific page to some of our key resources for this qualification. Click on the 'Resources' tab from the menu to access this page.

A set of Blended Learning Resources have been written to support teachers and learners with the AS/A level qualification. These aim to support students in developing their understanding of different aspects of the language and literature course. There are resources on:

- Linguistic and Literary Analysis
- Creative Writing
- Connecting Texts
- Spoken Language

These have been developed so that they can support learners who are either working independently or as part of a curated programme put together by teachers to try to cover some learning remotely. They can also be used in the classroom and have been written by senior examiners and current teachers.

GCE English Literature:

All the materials from previous Professional Learning events can be found on the AS/A level English Literature site. Click on 'Training' from the menu and then on 'Materials from previous events' to access these. They include the materials focusing on poetry from autumn 2019 to support you with Unit 2 and Unit 3. There is also a handy link on the subject-specific page to some of our key resources for this qualification. Click on the 'Resources' tab from the menu to access this page.

On the Digital Resources site, you will find resources for Blended Learning, Exam walk-throughs and Knowledge Organisers as well as resources focused on some of the key skills required for studying English Literature.

Blended Learning Resources have been written to support teachers and learners with the AS/A level qualification. These aim to support students in developing their understanding of different aspects of prose, poetry and drama, either working independently or as part of a curated programme put together by teachers to try to cover some learning remotely. They can also be used in the classroom and have been written by our Principal Examiners.

Written by Principal Examiners, the Exam walk-through resources offer practical hints and tips on how to effectively approach questions in each examination paper. Using questions from 2019 exam papers, the PowerPoint with audio and script in the notes will walk you through a mock examination paper, helping students revise and practise useful exam techniques. Students can complete the “mock” in a single sitting, tackle one or two questions at a time or revisit some parts of the presentation to reinforce their learning. These could be used for revision or as a starting point for creating your own knowledge organisers.

In addition to those resources on the dedicated website, centres will find very useful material on Portal, such as:

- previous A level CPD material: including lots of practical, classroom-focused activities
- NEA Standardising Material: videos and commentaries to help internal standardisation of NEA work
- past papers and mark schemes.

4. Post-Results Services

Following the publication of results for each examination series, WJEC offers a range of post-results services including:

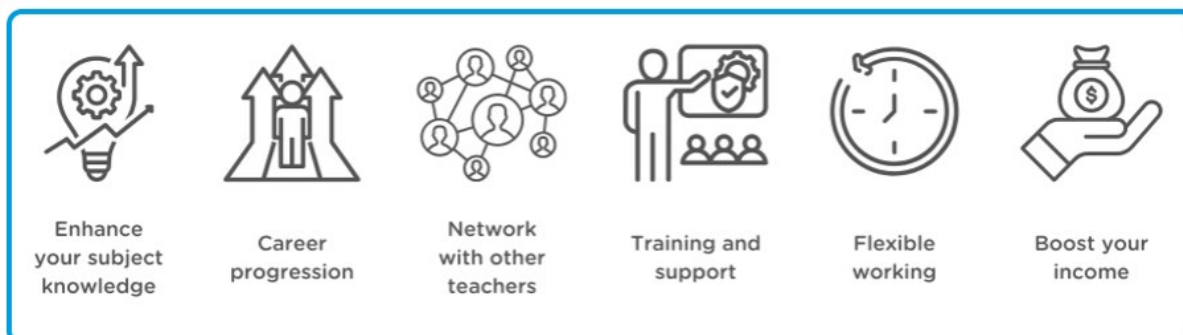

- Clerical re-check - a re-check of clerical procedures leading to the issue of a result
- Post-results review of marking - a review of the original marking to ensure that the agreed mark scheme has been applied correctly
- Access to scripts - an electronic version of the script, either as a priority or non-priority service
- Post-results review of moderation - a review of the original moderation to ensure that the assessment criteria have been fairly, reliably and consistently applied

Applications for these services must come from the entering centre, and so candidates must speak to their school or college if they wish to apply for a Post-results service.

Further advice and guidance can be found on our Post-results services page.

5. Examining with WJEC

Examiners and Moderators are vital to the delivery of our qualifications and we employ thousands of teachers to ensure that the quality of our marking continues to be of the highest standards. Some of the benefits of being an examiner can be seen below.

If you would like to join one of our examining teams, developing your knowledge and understanding of the subject as well as your expertise in assessment, you can apply here.

6. Professional Learning 2025-2026

Details of our Professional Learning programme will be available soon. Please keep an eye on our Professional Learning site for information and guidance on how to book a place at one of our events.

In the meantime, you can find materials from previous Professional Learning events on Portal.

6. Key dates

Key dates for the coming year have been posted on the WJEC website under 'Key Documents' > 'Key dates' on the relevant subject page.
