

GCSE MATHEMATICS, GCSE MATHEMATICS – NUMERACY and LEVEL 2 ADDITIONAL MATHEMATICS

SEPTEMBER 2022 - NEWSLETTER

GCSE MATHEMATICS AND GCSE MATHEMATICS - NUMERACY: NOVEMBER 2022 ADVANCE INFORMATION

Qualifications Wales has announced that adaptations to qualifications in Summer 2022 will not apply in November 2022. However, in recognition of the disruption that has occurred previously, Advance Information will be provided for examinations in November 2022, as announced by Qualifications Wales on 13 May 2022. The Advance Information will communicate, ahead of the examinations, the focus of the content of the examinations that will be assessed in the written examinations. The purpose of Advance Information is to support revision.

The Advance Information for November 2022 can be found under the Key Documents tab on the GCSE Mathematics web page: GCSE Mathematics and GCSE Mathematics Numeracy Key Documents \(wjec.co.uk\)

PROFESSIONAL LEARNING TRAINING COURSES

Events will be held in March for GCSE Mathematics and GCSE Mathematics – Numeracy. Booking is now available. Feedback from the November 2022 series will be the focus. Some events are being held face to face and others online.
