

GCSE DRAMA

Why choose GCSE Drama?

- You'll develop a wide range of skills.
- You'll gain confidence and have fun.
- You'll learn to work within a team and balance a range of ideas.
- You'll have a mix of practical and written work unlike any other subject.

How will GCSE Drama help me in the future?

The World Economic Forum's Future of Jobs Report predicts creativity, innovation and ideation will be key skills for the workforce of the future. These so-called soft skills, which sit alongside analytical thinking and problem-solving, will replace manual tasks that become automated. When business leaders across the world were surveyed, they voted Creativity as the most important workplace capability to help their businesses survive and grow. This means that the study of creative subjects, like Drama, is becoming even more important and relevant to young people to give you the chance to succeed – whatever your ambitions! At the same time, you will find many opportunities to develop and improve your personal wellbeing both independently and as part of a wider community.

What skills will I develop?

You will have the opportunity learn and develop a range of transferable skills and practise applying these to new situations. These include analytical, problem-solving, organisation and time management skills. You will also be able work collaboratively to generate, develop and communicate ideas, all of which will develop your emotional intelligence.

Your practical skills will be refined and will demonstrate creativity, reflection and resilience, as well as developing confidence and strong presentation skills.

Your written skills, both analytical and creative, as well as your ability to self-reflect, will be developed through a range of tasks.

Studying drama will give you opportunities for higher order thinking, by considering ideas which go beyond language. This is great brain-training which will help you in other areas too.

Through studying drama, you will be equipped with the skills to succeed in your next steps.
