Autumn 2023

Welcome back! We hope you all managed to have a restful break over the summer and that both you and your candidates were pleased with their examination results that were published in August.

Question Papers and Mark Schemes

The 2023 question papers and marking schemes are now available on the secure site (your Examinations Officer will be able to give you access if you do not already have it). They are placed on the secure site, rather than on the public website, as many centres like to use the most recent question papers as mock examinations.

Principal Examiners' Reports

Principal Examiners' reports from the Summer 2023 series are available via the public website: https://www.wjec.co.uk/qualifications/law-as-a-level/#tab_keydocuments

Including commentary on how each question in each paper performed, these are useful sources of information for improving candidate performance.

Professional Learning

We will be running a number of professional learning events, from our free online event to our fee-paying face-to-face events.

Our free online event will focus on feedback from the Summer 2023 examinations series and will be held on 20th November, 16:00 – 18:00.

The face-to-face events, which will focus on 'Assessment and Classroom Practice', will be held as follows:

- Llandudno: 23rd October, 9:30 – 15:30
- Cardiff: 26th October, 9:30 – 15:30

More details regarding these events, as well as how to book your place, can be found here.

Resources

A range of subject resources to support teaching and learning can be found on our Digital Resources site.

Interested in becoming an examiner?

As an examiner, you will gain invaluable insight into the assessment process and will enhance your subject knowledge, teaching skills and professional development. Full details can be found on our Appointees website.
