SEPTEMBER 2023 NEWSLETTER

Hi!

I hope you've been able to enjoy a restful summer break and you are looking forward to the challenges of a new year. Just a few quick notices about upcoming events that you may find helpful.

Free Summer 2023 Feedback event

There will be an online event on 16th October, starting at 16:00, which will focus on feedback from the Summer 2023 examinations.

More details about this event and how to book can be found here: Events for 16/10/2023 \(ticketsolve.com\)

Continuing Professional Development Events

We will be running face-to-face CPD events in Cardiff and Llandudno again this Autumn term. We will be looking at ways to engage learners with the controversies of Unit 3, examining how to explain the assessment objectives to learners, as well as addressing some of the trickier mathematical aspects of the qualification.

More details about these events and how to book can be found here AS/A Level Psychology \(wjec.co.uk\)

Eduqas Psychology Research Poster Challenge

The deadline for uploading entries in the Eduqas Psychology Research Poster Challenge is almost here (17:00 on Friday 15th September). More details can be found here Eduqas Psychology Research Poster Challenge

New Teacher?

Just a quick mention to the teachers who have recently started delivering the WJEC Psychology specification, especially those teachers in Northern Ireland – welcome!

If you haven't already done so, please consider joining the WJEC & Eduqas Psychology Centre Map using this google form: Psychology Centre Map
It allows you to see the contact details for other teachers/centres who have also signed up, allowing you to set up networks with teachers in your area.

If you have already joined the Psychology centre map, why not revisit it soon to see if any new centres have joined in your local area recently?

Best of luck in this new academic year, and as ever, please get in touch if you have any queries.

Rhiannon
