Welsh second language

Moving learners from level 4 to level 5
Introduction

The aim of this training pack is to provide guidance for year 6 and 7 teachers on how to move learners on from level 4 to level 5.

Seven exemplary teaching units are provided:
- Disgrifio ffrind / Describing a friend
- Newyddion personol / Personal news
- Proffil personol / Personal profile
- Ymateb i gerdd / Responding to a poem
- Chwarae rôl / Role play
- Trafod llyfr / Discussing a book
- Trafod amser hamdden / Discussing leisure time.

These units vary in length although they share the same aim, i.e. moving learners on from level 4 to level 5.

There is reference to other training packs published by WJEC on behalf of the Welsh Government and Welsh local authorities and it is suggested that teachers and training providers take advantage of the opportunity to make use of the ideas provided in them.

Also included are notes shared in courses by the Chief Moderator, Second Language Welsh (WJEC) and her team.

Part 2 of the pack includes notes that were shared during courses provided by the Chief Moderator, Welsh second language (WJEC) and her team along with Curriculum 2008 level descriptors.

An important element of the pack is the DVD, which includes:
- four teaching sessions filmed at St Patrick’s School, Newport and St Peter’s School, Rossett, Wrexham
- a PowerPoint presentation used in training courses by the Chief Moderator, Second Language Welsh (WJEC)
- sound files relating to elements of some of the teaching units

Note: the PowerPoint presentation is extremely useful as it guides the user through the moderation and standardisation process and provides links to relevant publications.

To open the DVD, left click and the menu will appear. To access the PowerPoint, right click, then click on ‘open’ and the presentation will appear.

This pack is also published on the WJEC website - http://www.cbac.co.uk/index.php?nav=75

Note: see role play in action in Film 2, St Patrick’s Primary School, Newport.

Steps:

1. In pairs, learners to play the loop game in order to revise previously introduced language patterns associated with expressing opinion – Appendix 1. 3. View Film 2, St Patrick’s Primary School, Newport and consider the steps taken by the teacher to prepare the pupils before they undertake the role play task.

4. Introduce the role play – Appendix 3 - and agree on success criteria – see example in Appendix 4.

5. Learners to use a poster, the English language prompt sheet – Appendix 3 - and success criteria to hold a conversation.

6. Learners to evaluate their work according to the success criteria. Pairs to listen to each other’s conversations and provide feedback based on the agreed success criteria.

Nicole Cooke – English language version

I am Nicole Cooke. I am 27 years old. My birthday is on April 13. I have short, straight, brown hair and blue eyes. I’m wearing cycling shorts, a Wales t-shirt and white “Nike” trainers. I have big size 7 feet!

I live in Italy but I come from Wick, Wales. I love Italy because it’s fine and sunny. I like going to Venice because it’s very pretty there. The gondolas are cool! I can speak Italian, Come stai “How are you?” very well too.

I have a family. The family live in Wick. I have a brother called Craig. I love Craig because he’s very clever. He’s a pilot. I don’t have a pet, worse luck. I would like to have a hamster.

I enjoy going out to eat in Italy because Italian food is very tasty! I like eating pepperoni and ham pizza very much but I hate pineapple because it’s yuck! My favourite drink is fruit smoothie because it’s good for me.

My hobby is cycling because I can cycle very well. I like sports like walking, rowing, tennis and gymnastics too. I cycled in the Olympic Games in Beijing in 2008 and I won a gold medal! There were seventy cyclists in the race and it was raining and windy, worst luck! I saw the Olympic ceremony in the stadium, it was very exciting. I had an amazing time!

2. Set the learners the challenge of bettering Sara and Tom’s work and outline the steps ahead of them.

3. Play Alibi game – Appendix 2.

4. Use the mind map – Appendix 3 – to help the pupils express their opinion and give reasons.

5. Use the hoola hoop activity – Appendix 4 – to enable pupils to extend their oral contributions and volunteer information more naturally.

6. Revisit Appendix 1, read through it with the pupils and introduce the Detailed responses sheet – Appendix 5. Pupils to practise them in pairs.

7. Pupils to consider how to improve the conversation by utilising the Detailed responses sheet – Appendix 5.

8. Reading tasks – the aim of this reading task is to show understanding of the Mistar Urdd Blog.

Pupils to read the blog – Appendix 6 – in pairs and use the reading skills prompt card – Appendix 7 - to help the overcome any difficulties. It is very important at this stage to encourage the pupils to persevere and not be too preoccupied with understanding every single word. General understanding is far more important at this stage. An English language translation of the blog – Appendix 8 – is provided for use by teachers.

Pupils to read limited sections of the blog aloud to partners/other members of small groups. Pupils to practise in pairs by reading the sections three times to each other; this gives them more confidence when reading aloud to a wider audience. Pupils to assess each other by using the assessment sheet – Appendix 9.

Pupils to complete the comprehension grid – Appendix 10.

9. Writing task – see Appendix 11.
Sharing and discussing personal news

10. Learners to present their own personal news to their partners and engage in a question and answer session to glean/provide further information. It is important that the learners are given enough time to write notes and practise the oral exchanges.

Learners to use Appendix 5 as a basis to formulate success criteria which can be used to provide their partner with feedback.

The vocabulary/phrases in Appendix 12 enrich the learner’s language.

Ble est ti ar y penwythnos?   Es i i(‘r) ... gyda/efo ...
Sut oedd y tywydd?   Roedd hi’n ... diolch byth
Beth welais ti?   Gwelais i ...

Remainder of the class/group fire questions at the person in the hot seat using the past tense. (The questions could be displayed)

Partners exchange places.

Class or group fire the same questions at second person in the hot seat.

Answers must correspond to first partner’s answers to gain a point.

Every-day language should also be used during this activity, e.g.

- Dewch yma/tyrd yma
- Partner un, ewch/cer allan
- Partner dau, eisteddwch/eistedda ar y Gadair Boeth
- Gofynnwch gwestiwn un

Using the ‘Casáu, Mwynhau a Dwlu ar/Wrth fy modd efo’ Mind Map

These mind maps help the learners express opinions with reasons. (You could create your own display based on the mind map)

Show the mind map on the interactive whiteboard.

Use actions to introduce casáu, mwynhau, dwlu ar/wrth fy modd efo and any adjectives on the placemat. The learners can decide on the actions to use. You could take photographs of the learners doing the actions and label them. Display them in class as a reminder.

Think, Pair, Share – Why are there different colours on the placemat?
- Green – positive verbs and adjectives,
- Pink – negative verbs and adjectives,
- Blue – Bocs Bendigedig.

Think, Pair, Share – What will replace the question marks on the mind maps – activity or hobby

Think, Pair, Share – Can the learners use the mind maps to express an opinion?

An oral or written activity can follow allowing learners the opportunity to create their own sentences (use small whiteboards).

Translation of the blog

Hi, I am Mistar Urdd. I am the Urdd logo. The Urdd is a Club for children in Wales. I am a red, white and green triangle like the Welsh flag. I am popular and I have lots of friends.

01/10/10 - Friday, Ryder Cup
I went to the Celtic Manor in Newport to see a golf tournament. The weather was fine thank goodness. I wore trendy sunglasses because I am fashionable. I saw Tiger Woods scoring a “birdie.” “EXCELLENT, TIGER!!!!!!” I enjoy watching golf very much, but I cannot play the game at all.

02/09/10 - Wednesday, Mistar Urdd’s birthday party
I went with my friend, David Jones, to Cwmbrân Stadium. I had a surprise party in the swimming pool. Great!! David can swim like a fish. He has a gold medal from the Olympic Games. I sang “Happy Birthday to me” and danced with the children from Torfaen. I love/adore Mistar Urdd’s song, because it is fun. I had a wonderful birthday. I am very lucky.

19/06/10 - Saturday, Weekend in Llangrannog
I went to the Urdd Camp in Llangrannog with the Blaenau Gwent children. I had a fantastic time! In the morning I saw Shane Williams skiing. He likes doing stunts. He's very talented! For lunch I had tasty spaghetti. I had a banana smoothie because it's important to eat healthily. Afterwards, in the afternoon I wore a colourful helmet and I went on the quad bikes. I had a race with Shane Williams and I won! Hurray!!!!!!

12/06/10 - Saturday, World Cup Game
I went to South Africa because I adore/love football. I went to the Stadium to see the England game against America. It was an exciting game. Wayne Rooney was there. I heard very noisy vuvuzelas.

10/12/09 - Thursday, Pantomime
In the evening I went with dad to the River Front Theatre, Newport to see Cinderella. Myleen Klass and Derek Brockway, the weather man, were in the pantomime. I adore Myleen because she's pretty and she can sing like a bird. Derek is very funny. I had a strawberry ice-cream. Yum yum!!!

Personal Profile

Aim: To give a presentation about oneself.

Note: see elements of this session in Film 2, St Peter’s School, Rossett, Wrexham. Ffilm 2.

Steps:

1. Revise/Introduce the vocabulary/sentence patterns – Appendix 1 – using loop cards/cadair goch/helpwr heddiw.

2. Read Jack’s profile aloud to the learners/learners listen to a reading from a sound file – Appendix 2. Assess their understanding by asking questions about aspects of the text, e.g.
   - Ble mae Jack yn byw?
   - Beth ydy/yw rhif ffôn Jack?
   - Beth ydy/yw hobïau Jack?
   - Oes brawd/chwaer gyda fe? /Oes ganddo fo frawd/chwaer/

Learners to read Jack’s profile by following these steps:
   - Listen to the profile being read again by the teacher/sound file
   - Pupils to work in pairs and read the profile three times to each other – these readings could be timed; this appeals to boys particularly.

3. Learners to complete a written comprehension task – Appendix 3.

4. Learners to complete Jack’s fact file – Appendix 4.

5. Present learners with the Level 4 success criteria for writing – Appendix 5. Ensure they understand the criteria and elicit from them a response to the question: ‘Why do we think that Jack is working on level 4?’

6. Present learners with the Level 5 success criteria for writing – Appendix 5. Ensure they understand the criteria. In pairs, learners to consider, in the light of the success criteria, how Jack’s profile could be improved.

7. Revise/Introduce more vocabulary – Appendix 6 - to help the learners attain Level 5 work in Step 8 - Appendix 7 - using loop cards/cadair goch/helpwr heddiw. Continuous revision of the vocabulary/phrases in Appendix 1 will also be necessary. Follow this link to the NGfL website to see several examples of teachers using various oral revision techniques:
Steps:

8. Revisit Jack’s profile – Appendix 2 – and guide the learners to use the grid – Appendix 5 – to consider how Jack’s profile could be improved.

9. Learners to read Jack’s second profile – Appendix 8 – and use the Level 5 success criteria for writing – Appendix 5 – to identify the Level 5 features in the piece of work.

10. Learners to write their own profile paying due attention to the success criteria and the use of the same criteria to assess their own and partner’s work.

11. Learners to introduce themselves to the class/group whilst their peers assess their performance using the success criteria. See film 2, St Peter’s Primary School, Rossett and Appendices 9 and 10.

- Divide learners into groups
- Learners to compose their own 5 comprehension questions based on the profile
- Groups to exchange sets of questions and hold a race/s to see which group can be first to answer the questions
- These sets of questions could be circulated among several groups

1. Faint yw/ydy oed Jack?

2. Pryd mae pen-blwydd Jack?

3. Ble mae Jack yn byw?

4. Pa liw gwallt sy gyda/gan Jack?

Discussing a poem
Aim: To discuss the poem Mynd i’r Dre, Mair Elwyn (Sgram!), and deliver a presentation about their own town.

Note: elements of this unit can be seen on Film 2, St Peter’s School, Rossett

Steps:

1. Teacher to introduce the poem and vocabulary such as ‘teitl’, ‘bardd’, ‘pennill’, ‘llinell’, ‘odl’ (title, poet, verse, line, rhyme). Learners to listen to the poem being read by the teacher/or the sound file and then to read it:

   in pairs / groups / boys / girls.

   It is important that pupils should be given the opportunity to read the poem several times. This develops their confidence and improves their ability to read clearly and with expression.

2. Link the pictures to the corresponding verse - Appendix 1. (individual or pair work)
   - Pa lun sydd ar goll? (Which picture is missing?)
   - Tanlinellwch y geiriau sy’n odli (Underline the words that rhyme)

3. Link the couplets - Appendix 2. (individual or pair work)

4. Written response to reading - learners to answer questions - Appendix 3.

5. Learners to consider their own town. Learners to discuss the questions and note their individual ideas on the sheet in order to complete the task - Appendix 4.

6. Class to discuss and agree on success criteria for this task: ‘Present information and discuss your own town with reference to the poem’. See typical examples - Appendix 5.

7. Pair work. Learners to use the framework to discuss their own town and compare it with the town in the poem - Appendix 5.

8. Learners to assess each other’s work using the success criteria. This can be done by:
   - recording the discussions
   - performing in front of the class.
Note: This task may be used to assess Oracy (using Oracy level descriptions) and response to Reading (using Reading level descriptions)

This task provides opportunities for learners to achieve Level 5.

One key difference between that will need to be considered between L5 Oracy and Reading is the way in which learners express opinion.

Level 5 Oracy –
‘When expressing opinions, they give reasons to explain their ideas’. Bydd y farn hon yn un bersonol ei natur.

Level 5 Reading –
‘They select relevant information from texts and express opinions simply’. The reasons given for the opinion will be based on evidence from the text.

Note: differentiating between verb form and verb tense

verb form = Dw i’n / Mae e / hi / Wyt ti’n? / Dydy / Does dim verb tense = present/past/future/conditional etc.

An alternative methodology to the setting of comprehension tasks is as follows:

1. Pupils to read the poem in groups.
2. Each group creates 5 comprehension questions to be answered by another group/other groups in the class.
3. Groups exchange questions and compete with each other to see which group completes the task of answering the questions first.
4. The task can be repeated many times with each group’s questions moving around the class.

Exemplary success criteria

1. Introduce the task and brief the class in respect of what is expected
   ‘Present information about your own town. Remember to express your opinion and give reasons.’

2. Discuss the possible content of the presentation and attempt to elicit ideas such as the following and provide language patterns to help the leaners:
   - Describe the town in the poem – Mae ffair a parc yn y dre
   - What does the poet like doing in the town? Why? – Mae Mair Elwyn yn hoffi mynd i’r parc achos mae hi’n hoffi chwarae pêl-droed.
   - What do you like / dislike about the town in the poem? Why? – Dw i’n hoffi’r dre achos mae pwll nofio yno. Dw i wrth fy modd yn nofio.
   - Do you think the poet likes living in the town? Mae Mair Elwyn yn hoffi’r dre achos mae hi’n mwynhau mynd i’r syrcas ac i’r ffair
   - What about your town? Dw i wrth fy modd/dwlu byw yn Aberhonddu achos …

3. In groups, learners to formulate success criteria for an oral presentation. If they have already completed a similar task in other subject areas, encourage them to utilise those ideas.

The following are examples of success criteria:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Ydw i wedi ...? / Have i ...?</th>
<th>✔</th>
<th>✗</th>

Steps:

2. Use Flippers to ask and answer questions about the book – Appendix 2.

3. In pairs, complete the reading record – Appendix 3 - orally and then in writing.

4. Teacher and pupils decide on success criteria for Step 5, e.g.
   - Listen and respond appropriately to partner’s contributions
   - Respond by asking questions and volunteering comments
   - Express their opinions about specific information or characters in the book and give reasons based on the text
   - Agree and disagree with partner
   - Use a variety of language patterns.

5. Discuss the book in pairs using Appendices 4 and 5.

6. Pupils to write a review of the book and assess each other’s work using success criteria agreed by class members. The review could include:
   - Title, author and reviewer’s opinion including reasons, e.g. Dw i’n hoffi’r llyfr achos mae Siân yn gymeriad doniol … ond dw i ddim yn hoffi …
   - A brief outline of the story, e.g. Mae Siân yn ddeuddeg oed ac mae hi’n mynd am dro gyda ffrind i’r goedwig …
   - A comparison with other books read by the class, e.g. Mae’n well gen i … achos … ond roedd … yn dda iawn hefyd achos …
   - Conclude by reiterating the main points and the reviewer’s opinion.

   Success criteria could be based on above points and the language items in Appendix 1.

7. Learners to redraft their reviews on the basis of the feedback from partner.

Leisure time

Aim: Cynnal sgwrs am amser hamdden.

Steps:

1. Inform learners of the unit’s aim.

2. Revise Level 4 language items – Appendix 1 - There are several examples of teachers drilling and practising language items in: http://www.gcad-cymru.org.uk/eng/rdp-cbac-cartref/rdp-cbac-cartref-primary-wsl/developing-oracy-in-ks2-2.htm

3. Learners to read Jack’s application form for Clwb Hwyl a Sbri – Appendix 2
   - Individually
   - In pairs
   - As a whole class
   - In order to practise speaking, learners could take on the role of the questioner, and the other of Jack. They must hold a conversation fluently, adding anything they can to Jack’s work to improve it. They may exchange roles.
   - Rather than take on Jack’s role, the next step is to answer the questions from their own perspective.

4. Before considering the success criteria for level 5, ask learners to work in pairs to suggest how Jack’s answers could be improved.
   - Teacher to give learners level 5 success criteria – Appendix 3
   - Work as a class to fill in the ‘I will do this by using’ column.

5. Improve Jack’s answers using the success criteria.
   - Compare their new profile to Jack’s level 5 answers – Appendix 4
   - How did they do?

6. Using the role play cards – Appendix 5 - learners assume the role of one of the people and hold a conversation using the questions and answers revised and the vocabulary sheet – Appendix 6 - to help.
   - Learners may also complete a writing task in the first person, assuming the role of one of the people on the role play cards and also in the third person, writing about another.
   - The above writing task could also be completed as a speaking task or used as a basis for a reading task.
   - Learners should use the success criteria – Appendix 7 - to complete the above, aiming to achieve level 5 work.
Leisure time

7.
   - Learners to write their own answers to the Clwb Hwyl a Sbri using the success criteria to plan – Appendix 8
   - Learners to practise reading their answers aloud to their partner, and listening to their partner’s corresponding contribution.
   - Learners to use the success criteria to assess their own and partner’s work.
   - Is there still room to improve?

   - Teacher and learners to discuss Oracy success criteria – Appendix 7 - paying particular attention to ‘responding’, and how this is done in the normal convention of a conversation.
   - Teacher to organise learners into groups of 3-4.
   - Learners to hold a conversation about their leisure time.
   - Learners should be encouraged to give extended answers and to ask and respond to many questions.
   - Learners should not read their written answers but can use notes as displayed in the second St Patrick’s and St Peter’s films.
   - Learners to use the success criteria to assess their own and their group member’s work.

Exemplifying some Curriculum 2008 level descriptor clauses
Exemplifying some Curriculum 2008 level descriptor clauses

Some level of uncertainty is sometimes experienced when analysing some level descriptor clauses. This is an attempt to define what is meant by some of these clauses.

Oracy

Level 2
- “short items” = 3 items + ‘Sut wyt ti? Ble rwyti’n byw? Mae’n braf’
- “short spoken phrases” = 3+ ‘…ydw i. Dw i’n … Mae …’da fi/gen i’

Level 3
- “series of short items” = a conversation that flows, e.g. ‘John ydw i. Dw i’n byw yn … Dw i’n mynd i … i.e. coherent items
- “express opinions simply” = dw i’n hoffi / ddim yn hoffi
- “make some statements voluntarily” = no need to respond to questions / offer observations without encouragement, e.g. ‘a fi hefyd’
- “increasing range of vocabulary and patterns” = 5+ ‘dw i’n, mae, ces i, es i, roedd e’n’ etc.. There can be a variety in verb tenses, but this is not absolutely necessary.

Level 4
- opinion still expressed in simple terms
- “various reasons” = achos mae’n … 3+ are suitable in addition to ‘cŵl, grêt, ffantastig’
- “some experiences” = do this regularly. Expand on information – dw i’n hoffi rygbi. Es i i gêm rygbi ar y penwythnos … gyda … mewn … o’r gloch
- “increasing variety of phrases and sentence patterns”, e.g. asking and responding, expressing an opinion, using the third person and negative forms
- “some accuracy” = depends on teacher commentary / background information. Basic patterns are correct.

Level 5
- “start a conversation” and “show more confidence” = consider these together
- “some awareness of order and progression” = ideas flow, e.g. ‘Fy hoff bwnc yn yr ysgol ydy/yw … achos mae’n … Dydd Llun, aethon ni gyda Mr Jones i … a gwelon ni …’
- “reasons to explain ideas” = authentic reasons, e.g. achos dw i’n, achos mae e’n/o’n …
- “verb forms” = e.g. verb tense, third persons, negative forms
- “good measure of accuracy” = the task is correct on the whole
Other resources

Level 6
- “a range of familiar situations” = complaining in the café, discussing healthy eating and keeping fit with peers, persuading a parent

Situation – it is possible to have a number of situations within one piece of work. e.g. in the café – discussing the menu, ordering, complaining etc.

Reading

Level 2
- “some simple passages”

Level 3
- “respond to poetry, stories and factual material” = 2 out of 3 essential
- “referring to aspects they like” = ’Dw i’n hoffi’r gerdd’ or ‘dw i’n hoffi’r ffair’ is plenty but they don’t need to form the sentences themselves, e.g. ‘Beth wyt ti’n hoffi yn y gerdd? Ffair, candifflos a hwyl’. This can be a multiple choice answer / ticking boxes. Don’t penalise incorrect language usage.

Level 4
- “respond to poetry, stories and factual material” as in Level 3 (although not in Level description for L4) = 2 out of 3 essential
- ‘referring to aspects they like’ as in Level 3 (although not in the Level description for Level 4)
- Need to keep the opinion and ‘significant details’ separate.

Level 5
- “with expression” = emphasis in the appropriate place
- “variety of suitable texts” = 3+ a poem, story etc.
- “express opinions simply” = have to express opinion in the profile and need to refer to evidence of what they have read, e.g. ‘Hoffwn i fynd i’r gêm rygbi achos mae tocyn yn costio £10’ (the reading extract mentions £10 ticket)

Level 6
- “express opinions on the content” = dw i’n hoffi’r stori achos…. – the reasons must derive from the text
- “authentic texts” = anything which has been published for learners, e.g. Bore Da / IAW!, Sgram / Poeth, Arthur / Sebon, Brechdan Inc....i.e. materials that have not been adapted by the teacher
- “gather information” = a L6 profile must include an example of gathering information.

Level 4

- “different purposes” = at least 2, e.g. a conversation persuading mum and dad to let you go to a disco / conversation introducing yourself to a new friend

Purpose, e.g. persuading, expressing and opinion, complaining, presenting information.

Level 5
- “a variety of purposes” = at least 3
- “express opinions simply” = the learner can express opinions before L5.

- “some reasons” = at least 2 but expect more. Remember that some
